Neena Speer is a proud member of the Alabama State Bar since April 2018. Neena is also this year's Co Chair of the Birmingham Bar Association's Public Service Committee. Neena is a member of the Alabama Lawyers Association and the Magic City Bar Association. She focuses primarily on criminal defense, business formation, trademarks, copyrights, contract drafting/review, family law, and wills and estates in her practice. She formally created her LLC for her solo practice in Jan. 2019 after starting as a sole proprietorship her first year in practice and has been working hard for her clients ever since 2018.

Attorney Speer prioritizes serving her clients and has helped resolve cases with deferred prosecutions, reduced sentences to community service, etc. She listens to each person she serves with a full heart and powerful passion. She has also started her own nonprofit (@step123mentor) and has written her first book, Dear Future Lawyer: An Intimate Survival Guide and Journal for the Minority Female Law Student all before the age of 26. Hard work pays off! She works hard so you don't have to.
